Amy you left this world way to soon,you were a very dear friend to me.I feel blessed to know you as my friend, but you were not only my friend you were my second mother. your leaving has left a void in my heart that no one can ever fill. This world was a better place because you were in it .Now heaven is even more special with you in it, so my dear friend rest in peace and go get those angel wings you earned.and thank you so very much Amy for letting me in your life and for being my friend for so many years. i will never for get you.
