“ My heartfelt condolences to the Johnson family. The death of a dear loved one is so hard to bear. Knowing this, our loving merciful Father gave his Word to end death, pain and suffering. His love will strengthen you to endure your loss. Revelation 21: 4, 5. Shirley

“ I want to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one and I hope the following suggestions help the family members and those who loved Andrea Beth Johnson to lessen their grief.

- Talk about your feelings to “a true companion” who will listen patiently and sympathetically.
- If you have feelings of guilt thinking that some neglect on your part contributed to your loved one’s death, realize though, that no matter how much we love another person, we cannot prevent “time and unforeseen occurrence from befalling those we love. (Ecclesiastes 9:11)

More than anything else, a relationship with God can help you to cope with the death of someone you love. Isaiah 33:24 promises the time when an end to sickness will become a reality. God will put an end to pain, suffering and even DEATH. God promises at Isaiah 25:8 that death will be swallowed up forever.

“ To the family of young Andrea, I don't know you or your family ,but I just wanted to send you my condolences for I know all to well how it feels to lose someone so special especially this time of the year, for I lost my mother 10 years ago today (X-mas Eve) & on the 10th of this month in 2005 I lost my sister, 14 days before my mother, X-mas has never been the same again. But I look at it this away, God needed another flower to fill his garden & Andrea was chosen to fill that empty space in God's kingdom, so be thankful she get to spend Xmas with Jesus this year & from here on , for God knew she was tired & he granted her rest, now she has been employed as an angel to watch over the rest of you & others that may have been afflicted with her illness. Again my heart goes out to you , May God be with you & your family now & forever more. Vivian Lawson
