One story I remember was when she met Lucille Ball on one of her flights. She remarked how rude and mean she was to the flight crew. I loved her stories and her. She will be missed.

“ I have so many memories of our childhood & I cherish each one. We laughed together about the silly things in life. On occasions, we had a serious conversation but our time spent together was a treasure. Welcome to your new heavenly home. I will see you on the other side.
