“ *To Brett's family, I'm so sorry to hear this tragic news, I will continue to pray for you all for strength and comfort. I met Brett thru my son Cary and what an great kid he was, he came up to visit us in Caryville/Lafollette Tenn. and our guys trip to Bristol Dragway & "Pinks All" out was a time I'll always cherish. Along not only with Brett but with my 2 sons Curtis & Cary and other friends, can you say a packed pickup truck. lol Brett taught me to laugh after some tough times I've had, which I'm grateful we had a chance to meet, he always called me Pops which was pretty cool 😎... “ Brett I will miss you always! I loved how you loved others! You treated everyone as if they were most important and put them first. I will miss your quirky ways and your sense of humor- that I got and understood! I'll miss the love in your voice whenever you talked about Marleigh! Pop and I were so proud of you. I pray that you are with Pop now and get to really talk about your italian heritage and food from one cook to the other! I love you and hope you always knew and felt that!

“ *Brett is my great nephew. His life gone way too soon .Brett was a hard working man. He was just beginning his adulthood as a husband to Alissa . His most precious gift was Marleigh .She is his 7 year old daughter. His Mom Laurie Smith and Joseph Smith Sr. Raised Brett and they were very close. Brett to me had such a Baby Face ,like angelic. He was just a great guy. . I love you Brett Saia with my whole heart . Fly high with The Eagles, Brett and keep an eagles eye on Your Mom. Your wife and your daughter . My Family forever and ever Amen
Aunt Nancy , Maryah and Adam . We've had each other all these years .
Will the Circle Be Unbroken. You suffer no more.*
