“ Dear Diane,

I was greatly moved in hearing about the passing of Brian. At 61, I still believe we can live forever but as you and your family are experiencing, this is not the case. I lost touch with many of the graduating class of 1967 but I always enjoyed the class reunions and talking with Brian. May god bless you and your family.

Best Regards

“Diane, Nikki, and family. I don't need to say that we've lost a "good man," each of us know that. Brian was special to all of us in many ways and for different reasons. There may have even been times when I'm sure some of us didn't understand - but what is most important is there was never a time any of us doubted that he was there for us. I was fortunate, and proud, to be his friend. I cherish the memories. RIP my friend.##imported-begin##Tony Sterling##imported-end##

“ Dianne:

Susan and I are praying for all of the Maloney Clan during your time of grieving. We also are praying for the repose of Brian's beautiful soul and know that he has gone to rest with our Lord. I know that we haven't stayed in contact with all of you, over the years, but know that I think of you all, quite often. Give my love to everyone and I know that even though we can't be there in person, that we are there in thought and prayer.

Some of my fondest childhood memories are the days and nights I spent with all the Maloney's. You all will always occupy a very special place in my heart.

*God Bless you all,
Love,*

“ Dianne,

I am so sorry for your loss. I know I did not get to see him often, but I have great memories of our school days together. He was a good guy and I always enjoyed running into him in the oddest places when he was working for the phone company and ofcourse the VFW. I really appreciated his help with Dad's memorial service. My thoughts and prayers will be with you.
