

David Cox

December 18, 1934 - May 18, 2014

David Cox, 79, of, Salisbury, passed away on Sunday, May 18, 2014 at the Delaware Home for the Chronically Ill in Smyrna, Delaware.

He was born to Amos and Violet Cox on December 18, 1934, the last of 11 children. Only nine of them proceeded to adulthood.

Dave was a simple country boy, who loved his family, dogs, and trucks of any kind, especially 18-wheelers. He drove a truck his entire life, culminating in having a small line of trucks that bore his name. Dave felt it was important to always look nice, and be dressed and looking handsome. He was a very simple and quiet man.

He is survived by a son, David Cox, Jr.; a brother, Robert Cox; and several nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by Richard Cox, Kenneth Cox, Frank Cox, Ellen Darby, Alice Humphreys, Hazel Ray and Pauline McMichael.

A visitation for family and friends will be held from 1:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Thursday, May 22, 2014 at the Short Funeral Home, 13 E. Grove Street in Delmar. A graveside service will be held at 3:00 p.m. at Siloam Cemetery.

In memory of Mr. Cox, contributions may be sent to the Alzheimer's Association, P.O. Box 96011, Washington, DC 20090 or by visiting www.alz.org.

Online condolences may be sent to the family by visiting www.shortfh.com. Arrangements are in the care of Short Funeral Home of Delmar.

“ Dave,
So sorry for your loss. Jen and I are thinking of you and all who cared for your Dad. He was always so nice to talk to when he came to the plant.

Deepest regrets,

Chris Donnelly

“ I will miss Uncle Dave like I miss my dad
They were not only brothers--but trucked together many years. I am so proud to be a part of this family. They were all an example of love loyalty to each other growing up. I had the privilege of hanging out with my quite a bit the past 3 years. Everytime we were together he always made me laugh. Even after he became ill he could always smile and crack a joke. I just want to say how grateful I am to his brother Bob for taking care of him these past 9 months. That is what family truly is just being there. I have many stories and memories I will always carry my heart about Uncle Dave. He was a quiet thoughtful man but always there to help anyone he could. God bless you Uncle Dave. I will miss you.
