

Dillon Taylor Wien

June 15, 1992 - June 28, 2023

Dillon Taylor Wien, 31, of Tampa, Florida is now resting in the arms of Jesus. He passed away on June 28, 2023. Born June 15, 1992, he graduated from Delmar High School in 2010 and moved to Tampa in 2015. He fell in love with the Sunshine State and lived life to the fullest until his passing. He attended Radiant Church in South Tampa.

Dillon spent his life as a jack of all trades including HVAC, irrigation installation, painting, and personal training. Although surfing was his greatest passion, he loved anything to do with a board: wakeboarding, skateboarding, snowboarding. He also loved riding his motorcycle, sketch drawing, weightlifting, and spear fishing. If it involved adventure or thrill seeking, it involved Dillon.

He is survived by his mother, Wendy Lecates, of Laurel, his father, Paul T. Wien, Jr (Tricia) of Salisbury, his sister Meagan Campbell (Jared) of Salisbury, and his brother Chad Wien (Sarah) of Laurel, three nieces, Taylor, Alexis, and Mia, and one nephew, Deacon. He is also survived by many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends whom he loved and who loved him.

In memory of Dillon, contributions may be sent to Real Recovery Sober Living Tampa, 4411 Bee Ridge Road #606, Sarasota, FL 34233.

A visitation for family and friends will be held from 6:00 to 8:00 pm on Friday, July 7, 2023 at Short Funeral Home in Delmar. A funeral service will be held at 2:00 pm on Saturday, July 8, 2023 at 3C USA Church, 38238 Old Stage Road, Delmar, DE 19940 where a visitation will also be held from 1:00 to 2:00 pm. Pastor Jared Rittenhouse will officiate.

“ I have too many memories to mention. My first was getting him from the nursery so his mom could see him. They thought I was his grandmother, boy was I hot! As a little boy he would come to call me TT same as Meagan did. He loved my sweet tea and got whatever he wanted since he was the only boy I would ever have. Thanks Wendy for sharing! Love from TT Dill, until we see each other again!

“ Dillon, we first met in 1992 when I was 10. You were just a couple months old and Mommom, Poppop and your Mom drove you and Meg across the country to south Texas in a camper van with no A/C. You were a sweaty little ball when they brought you in the house and as soon as you felt the A/C you stretched out and opened your eyes so big and wide. I'll never forget those baby blues ❤️ You we're such a kind hearted little kid. I toted you around and you made me watch Fox and the Hound a million times. When you would leave room I would fast forward it and every time you came back you and called me out on it. 😭 Rest east in the arms of Jesus, cuz. I love you and I'll see you later 🥰

“ I am deeply saddened by the loss of Dillon, and my heart goes out to his family during this incredibly difficult time. Dillon was not just a friend, but a source of inspiration and joy in my life. His infectious laugh and radiant smile could brighten even the darkest of days. Every second I spent with him was filled with happiness and laughter, and I am forever grateful for the memories we shared.

Dillon's presence in my life was a true blessing. He taught me the value of living life to the fullest and finding joy in the simplest of moments. His unwavering positivity and genuine kindness touched the lives of everyone around him. I consider myself incredibly fortunate to have known him and to have been a part of his life for five amazing years.

Dillon had a deep love for his family, and he often spoke fondly of his nieces. He cherished the time he spent with them and had dreams of creating a loving family of his own someday. His aspirations for marriage, financial stability, and emotional fulfillment were a testament to his determination and desire for a fulfilling life.

I have been fortunate to share countless memories with Dillon, but one that holds a special place in my heart is when we first met and embarked on thrilling adventures together at Moonlake. Wakeboarding and jet skiing became our shared passions, and we never missed a chance to hit the lake. Dillon was not just my best friend; he was the guiding light in my life, bringing immeasurable joy during moments when I felt lost and uncertain as a woman in today's society. He had a unique ability to uplift and inspire, always encouraging me to embrace life to its fullest potential. Dillon had an incredible gift for recognizing and appreciating the beauty within others, and he never failed to remind me of my own worth. He would often express his belief that we were destined to be together, sharing dreams of a future where we would walk down the aisle as husband and wife. Our friendship was something I held dear and cherished deeply. The bond we shared was built on trust, laughter, and a mutual understanding that made our connection truly special.

I will forever treasure the memories we created together and the love and support Dillon brought into my life. He had a way of taking you under his wing, offering guidance and understanding in a way that few others could. His presence brought a sense of purpose and meaning to my life, and I am forever grateful for the impact he had on me.

To Dillon's family, I offer my deepest condolences. I cannot imagine the pain and heartache you are experiencing right now. Please know that you are not alone, and that you have my full support during this difficult time. May the love and support of your loved ones, as well as the cherished memories of Dillon, bring you strength and comfort in the days ahead.

Dillon will be deeply missed, but his impact on our lives will forever remain. He has left an indelible mark on our hearts, and his spirit will continue to inspire us. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ I met Dillon in 2021 at Riverside in Tampa. He inspired every individual there to be a better person with his intellect, honesty, loyalty, perspective, insights, and his infectious positivity. I am a better man and father because of the time I spent with Dillon in recovery. No doubt he's already got the wheels turning on his surfing school for kids in heaven with his drive. Love ya brother, rest easy.

“ I hardly know where to start , I met Dillon back in 2015 when he started working with me at Flammer Ford in Tarpon Springs Fl. in the Detail dept. we hit it off right off the bat even though I was a lot older than him .I remember helping him with some personal stuff as he did for me as well .We had fun , he made work fun everyone there liked him he once told me if I ever had a problem outside of work he would be there for me I always appreciated that there's so much more I can say but the most important thing is that I love him and will miss him . God bless Dillon , he's surfing in Heaven now I know it ! 🙏 🙏 🙏 🙏

“Doodlebug... No one's heart hurts like mine, because a mothers heart IS her children. You and Sis made life worth living. You guys are my very breath... I felt for a bit as though someone has punched me in the stomach and, literally, took my breath. I cried and I cried out. I screamed and asked God where was He?! I stood my ground and reminded him how I gave everything up for him... how I left you here to go to Bible college. I reminded Him how we've battled this off and on for 16 years!! I told Him how I didn't know it would end like this and if I HAD known how I would have done things differently. I told him I wanted to die, too, as I banged my fist in a rage! I threw my Bible and asked again, "Where are you??" I broke completely. Several hours later... He came walking on the water. I didn't see Him but I felt His Presence so powerfully. Supernaturally, the excruciating darkness and pain inside of my heart and mind was lifted. The storm was over and I could breathe again. He gave me a pearl that only I would understand. I found the Jesus I had trusted all these years... with life, with Meagan, and with you, Dillon. He is faithful. He is trustworthy. Most importantly, He has assured me you are with Him. I'm sure going to miss that gorgeous face of yours, your boyish charm, and that smile... but wow, how I'm jealous you are in heaven and I am not! We will see each other soon, baby boy... one day in His court is a thousand elsewhere. I love you!! 🥺❤️

“ I’ve had tons, but one that I’ll always remember...we were young and Dillon, Doug, and myself climbed a billboard out near his old neighborhood and threw paintballs at cars. Man, that laugh was INFECTIOUS. Big ol belly laugh that was pure joy. He could truly brighten anyone’s day. I could do on for days about memories and the talks we had, but that one when we were younger will always stick out.

“Dillon - I was so heartbroken to hear of your passing. We (you, me, Cameron, and Chad) shared so many good times on Mallard Drive. For nearly 10 years, we were the neighbors that became family, showing up to each other's birthdays, holidays, and everything in between. I remember how we used to jump on the trampoline every single day until dark, and when our parents told us to come in, we all yelled out "25 more minutes!" and it worked every time. The day-long ping pong competitions, trying to convince Ellie to let us swim in her pool, playing football in the backyard ... so many memories. I am praying for you and for your family. Love always.

“One of my favorite memories of Dillon was when we were going out on the boat and I brought my dog and as we were loading the boat, Booker decided he wanted to jump in the water...before I could even jump after him, Dillon was in the water grabbing him and getting him back on the boat. It was one of the most fun days ☀️

“ You lifted everybody in the room with your smile.. I remember being on the balcony in treatment at turning point 3B and it was the first time I felt sincere joy in sobriety.. I never thought I could laugh that hard and I can't remember the last time I laughed so hard with someone in my entire life.. they told us we couldn't be around each other anymore because we laughed together so much.. I am forever grateful and thankful for what you've given me in this life.. you helped me find my personality and joy in the darkest moments of my life.. I love you brother

“ Dillon was my nephew and as I do all my nephews and nieces I love him very much. From the time he was born he was easy, laid back, just a gentle spirit.
Our family will miss that big smile of his and his quiet laugh from his sense of humor. You rest baby and prayerfully, one day, we will all be together again. Love you bigger than the sky, Aunt Karen ❤️
