“ Just a note to express my sympathy in the passing of Donnie. I have many fond memories of him and cherish each one. He was always very honest, hard working man and had such a dry sense of humor. I am glad his suffering is over and pray that he is at peace.

“ Dear Pat, I am very sad to hear about the death of your brother, Donald Cummins. (Barry called me here in NC to let me know.) You see, there's a memory that I hold in my heart about Donald -- your brother and my sister took me to my very first movie back when I was four years old (That's sixty years ago !!) The movie was titled The Third Man, and I will never forget how kind your brother was to me when I was a little, little girl. I'm sending you my sincere condolences, and I hope that Donald is at peace in the arms of his Creator and that you are at peace, too.
Affectionately,
