GO

“ When I recall Doug it is always associated with the various family gatherings--whether to celebrate the extended Waller family, or for other occasions such as weddings and/or funerals.

May those closest to him--his family, siblings and others--find comfort in knowing that you have your memories of the time spent with him. He will continue to live with those memories and I believe Doug has now moved to a peaceful place with his journey fulfilled.

I offer my sincerest condolences to all during this difficult time.
