

F. A. Buddy Pollitt

May 22, 1952 - August 6, 2009

F. A. Buddy Pollitt, 57, of Delmar, died Thursday, August 6, 2009 at Delmar Nursing & Rehabilitation Center.

He was born May 22, 1952 in Salisbury, a son of the late Fred W. Pollitt and Katherine Powell.

Buddy owned Custom Coating Painting Company and after that he owned and trained Standard bred racehorses. He was best known for singing in various bands in the area, including Dallas & the D.J.'s and The Outcast. He had a great love of country music and playing his guitars. Buddy was gifted with many talents, including building country crafts, tables and wall décor. He treasured time spent with his grandchildren who he adored.

He is survived by his daughter, Shady Lynn Pollitt and her companion, Rick Stoakley and their children who were the love of his life, Ivy, Lily and Summer Lynn; a son, Darren White, all of Salisbury; the mother of his children, Beverly Pollitt of Hebron; lifelong friends, Larry Richardson and Dallas Ruark; and a very special cousin, Sandy Benton of Princess Anne. He is also survived by several aunts, uncles and friends.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by two brothers, Richard Pollitt and Thomas Powell.

A memorial service will be held on Sunday, August 9, 2009 at 2:00 p.m. at Short Funeral Home, 13 E. Grove Street, Delmar.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in his memory to Delaware Hospice, 20167 Office Circle, Georgetown, DE 19947.

Online condolences may be sent to the family by visiting www.shortfh.com.

“ *Shady and Family,
I had the wonderful pleasure of taking care of your father at DNRC .
I am so thankful I got the chance to meet such a charming man and his family and friends . You and your family are in my thoughts and will continue to be forever in my heart . May you find the strength in which i know you have to cherish all the memories and each day you had with him . Shannon##imported-begin##Shannon “ Well what can I say that would make the pain go away, the tears dry up and the hole to mend in our hearts? Nothing really, only thing that can be said is just because to living is no longer with us, we should not stop living. I wrote this poem, when my mom passed away a few years ago, and I hope it brings a little hope to your family as it did to me. I will always remember all the great memories I have had with Uncle Buddy. It seems like each day someone passes, but when it is someone as great as Buddy passes on, you wonder why. I know he will be looking down on our family everyday and still sharing that same love and devotion, even though he is gone physically, he will never leave our hearts. I love you guys and you will be heavy in my thoughts and prayers today.

“Remembrance

By Tammy Rae Powell

Death surrounds us all.

Whether we are mothers, daughters, fathers, sons, or friends.

Old and wrinkled or small as an infant child.

No one knows why and where,

But we depart from life.

Even though we pass on, we are remembered.

Our souls will reside in the hearts of loved ones.

We only last a lifetime,

But our memories last forever”###imported-begin##Tammy Rae Powell###imported-end##
