“ We will greatly miss our Canasta card partner that we have so enjoyed playing with for many years. Faye was a great lady & we loved all our great conversations, silliness & laughter every Wednesday during our games. As most people know Faye liked to win and was a good card player! One could almost be assured of winning if you drew Faye as your partner that day!

“ I remember Faye as she did my hair for my first wedding in 1966. I moved from this area in the 80's. When I met my late husband I returned to Delmar in 1986 and Faye did my hair for this my final wedding. Life took us away for the next 20 years and I returned to Delmar in 2016. Funny how life is.. after meeting new friends I was asked to play cards and guess who was in the group? Faye! The last time the group played cards was at Faye's house in March of this past year. My how she loved to play cards! To her family my best regards. RIP Faye
