“ Gail, I just wanted to wish you a happy birthday, even though you are now in heaven, with other family and friends, who have gone before you. I think about the good time, and the goofy things we shared. You know there will always be a big place in my heart for you. You were in life, and you always will be. I still love you kid. I will find you again some day (hopefully not too soon). You know I still have a lot of people to irritate yet HA HA. By the way if you run into Jim, slap him on his head, and tell him it's from me. Yes Gail I know these notes are for those you left behind, but it's your birthday so I send this to you, my precious friend. Marvin sent me that angel gift the other day from the both of you, I told him, I like to think it, is your way of letting us know you're always watching over all of us. luv ya Girl. “ On this snowy day in December reminds me of when I was a kid and mom would make snow cream, she would usually wait for the second snow fall of the year and then mom would go out and scoop a big bowl full off the top and take it inside, add sugar and cream to it then serve it to us kids, it was so delicious. This is just one of many great memories I have with my mom. I just wanted to share it with everyone.

I love you mom, you will always be with me.###imported-begin###Michael Reinhardt###imported-end##

“ To Marvin and family. Gail and Marvin, were more like family to me. Gail had a very big heart. She loved her family and friends very much. Gail and Marvin shared a great love for one another, that most people never find in a life time. I like to remember the the things we laughed about, the things we talked about. She hated the hot weather so much. I remember the times she put a plastic pool in her dining room so Tracy could play in the pool, so Gail could watch her, and not have to go out into the summer heat. I am so glad I saw her, while she still knew who I was. I was able to still make her smile. At one point she wanted to write on the back of Marvin's hand. She only needed to write 3 letters, it was something that really made Marvin and me laugh out loud big time, and put a really big smile on her face, that if she had been able to laugh out loud, that would have done it. Marvin and myself know about it. I am smiling now just talking about it. Anyone that new Gail , were all the better for it. I loved her as a dear friend, even now. She will always be in my heart, and my thoughts .I hope that Marvin and his family still stay close friends as we were . Gail, Marvin , and me (3 great frinds) Gail, I miss you so much. Good nigh and sleep in heavenly peace.##imported-begin##Maria Jessee##imported-end##
