

Galena C. Williams

March 21, 1932 - February 25, 2010

Galena C. Williams, 77, of Laurel, passed peacefully at her home on Thursday, February 25, 2010, surrounded by her loving family.

Born in Unicoi, Tennessee, she was a daughter of the late Clarence and Ruth E. Smith McInturff.

Before moving to the Eastern Shore, Mrs. Williams worked many years for the Acacia Insurance Co. in Washington, DC. After moving her family to the area she used her talents by working as a seamstress in a shirt factory in Salisbury and as a waitress at various restaurants in Salisbury. She moved to Englewood, Florida in 1997, where she has lived until coming home to spend her last days with her family. She is fondly remembered as a hard working mother, putting everyone else's needs before her own. She never met a stranger and unselfishly gave to anyone who needed help. Mom's door was always open for everyone.

She is survived by four children, Angelo Triglia, III and his wife, Lorraine, of Eden, Debra Triglia Singh of Laurel, Maria R. Triglia of Englewood, Florida and Larry Williams and his wife Lydia of North Port, Florida; eight grandchildren, Jeffrey W. Kenney, Angelo Triglia IV, Colby Williams, Lacey Williams, Brittney M. Triglia, Evan Williams, Tyler Triglia and Avery Williams; a great granddaughter, Katelynn J. Kenney; and brothers and sisters, Wanda Fowler, David J. McInturff, Lucy N. McInturff, Carl Wayne McInturff and Robert C. McInturff. She is also survived by several nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by two brothers, Leonard F. McInturff and Donald P. McInturff.

A visitation for family and friends will be held on Monday, March 1, 2010 from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. at Short Funeral Home in Delmar, and also Tuesday, March 2 from 1:00 to 2:00, followed by a funeral service to be held at 2:00 p.m. Pastor Rob Dicken will officiate. Interment will follow the services at Springhill Memory Gardens in Hebron.

Memorial contributions may be made in her memory to Delaware Hospice, 20167 Office Circle, Georgetown, DE 19947.

Arrangements are in the care of Short Funeral Home in Delmar.

Online condolences may be sent to the family by visiting www.shortfh.com.

“Debbie (my late sis.) and I would run to her house as "tweeny-boppers" just to be in a house full of fun and love. With snow on the ground one Feb. -68 or -69 Maria, Debbie and I put an inflatable swimming pool in the attic and ran a hose up the side of the house and filled it with water. In our bikinis splishing and a splashing we had the only day-spa in Princeton Homes. Suddenly aware of the time, that Galena would be home any minute, we scrambled for all the pots and pans we could find to bail the water out the tiny upstairs window, saturating the insulation of the unfinished attic. As Galena came in the door having a very long day at Bella Donna, we stood silently to see if she would find out about our winter wonderland in the attic. "What have you kids been up to?" Doesn't every parent know what quiet means? As the ceiling started to drip above her head, we could not stand the suspense and started giggling and confessed. I don't recall Galena punishing us or telling our Mom, Pat. but I do remember that her open back door was not just my refuge but a 2nd home. Galena, you are still my angel of love. Thanks for the best memories of my childhood from Roger St. to Carrolton Ave. Angelo, Debbie and Maria, May God continue to love you as much as your Mom loved us. “ Angelo & family: We certainly have you in our thoughts and prayers with losing your mom. Angelo, you sure did look like your mom and it sounds like she gave all she had to her family throughout her life. Hopefully, all will have many happy memories to relive and share with future generations. So thankful you were able to bring her home where she wanted to be...what peace that must have given her.##imported-begin##Wendy & Don Duncan##imported-end##
