“ From Bernie Ezzell - Hatton's nephew:

Of all the uncles I've had, he was the closest to our family. After serving in the Navy, he went to work at SAFEWAY grocery store as a "MEAT CUTTER," He retired after 40 years, moved to Myrtle Beach around the same time as Ernie and my mother Grace Louise (Hatton's sister), and went to work for RYAN's, LOGAN's and GOLDEN CORAL restaurants as their "Meat Manager." After a heart attack, he worked part-time. Shortly after his wife, Kay, passed away, he stopped working. He ended up moving back to the eastern shore of MD then went to work delivering Pepperidge Farm brand products to various stores. He was still delivering and stocking at 80!

Hatton and his wife Kay were "life savers" during my family's tough times when I was a young man - they made sure my mother, Grace Louise and my brothers/sisters were taken care of after the death of Jack, (Grace's 1st husband.) Along with my Uncle Charlie and Aunt Delores, Hatton and Kay were able over the years to help us out in so many ways

He was a fine, kind, and generous man. So loved and will be missed.
