“ Beth I walked into the doctors office today and expected the usual funny banter from you and Carol. I saw the sign and the office was very quiet and I started crying. You are much loved and much missed.

I didn't know Beth personally but she was a true friend to me on Facebook. I will miss her completely. Hopefully, she is in a better place.

“ I never actually met Beth in person, we were friends on facebook and played many games together. As much as I chatted with her, she was a really sweet and down to earth lady who had a passion for saving animals and like me, we were both Redskins fans. Beth's sweetness in life, made me always think of my own mother that I lost 8 years ago. They were so much alike. It has really saddened my heart to read that Beth had passed away. It brings up a question I have asked for years, why do good people pass young ? My sincere condolences, thoughts and prayers go out to her family and friends. May God forever bless all of you ! Beth, Rest In Eternal Peace Sweetie !

Beth loved life. You knew where you stood with her. She was a kind person and would give you the shirt off her back . A privilege to be her friend. Known her since I was 6. Still cannot believe it. She loved her family with all of her heart.

“ It just seems unreal...I talked to you for months over the phone until one day I got the opportunity to meet you Beth. You were just as sweet in person as you were over the phone. Over the years we shared not only friendship but the love of snow...can't say the love of a football team but this is why I am sharing my purple one...you can get me back when I see you again!! I will miss you tremendously especially our early morning can you please send me something for our Farms. Rest in peace my sweet friend you will be missed by so many.

“ Beth had a lot of love she shared with her family and friends. Jaden was her greatest joy, it was her favorite topic to talk about. When Beth worked at the Salon with us, she spoke often of how she loved her cats and Jaden always was right with her whenever her Dad worked. She will be missed by all that knew her. God Bless and many prayers going up for Beth and her family.
