

Ida M. Taylor

March 27, 1913 - September 5, 2009

DELMAR – Ida M. Taylor, 96, of Delmar died Saturday, September 5, 2009 at Wicomico Nursing Home. Born near Delmar she was a daughter of the late Isaac Hearn and Cornelia Wilkins Hearn.

She was a devoted and loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great grandmother and friend. In 1991, friends and family rejoiced when she was baptized by Elder Cleo Robertson of Cary, NC. She was a member of Forest Grove-Salisbury Old School Baptist Church and the friendships, fellowship and trips to North Carolina OSBC homes and churches shared over the years were highlights in her life.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Jean and Bill Leonard of Delmar; grandchildren, Teresa L. King and companion, Dick Baker, Salisbury, Gary W. Leonard and wife, Dawn, Bridgeville, DE, Susan J. Comba and companion, Vic Disharoon, Eden, and John E. Leonard and companion, Kathy Twilley, Delmar; great grandchildren, Nichole M. Comba, Cockeysville, MD, Taylor W. Leonard and wife, Jennifer, Millsboro, DE, Krista Haley Leonard, Bridgeville, DE, Megan M. Leonard, Danvers, MA, Jennifer L. King, ; one great-great grandchild, Shawn M. Bennett, Salisbury; a special nephew, Byard E. McNelia and wife, Nona, Salisbury; a niece, Nancy King, Seaford; and several other nephews.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband of almost fifty years, Walter W. Taylor, who passed in 1978; two sisters, Pearl E. McNelia and Julia M. Ada; and three half sisters, Bessie Mitchell, Helen Haddaway Bramble and Mary Wilkins.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, September 12, 2009 at 2:00 p.m. at Short Funeral Home, 13 E. Grove Street, Delmar, with a visitation one hour prior. Elder Elbert Robbins will officiate. Interment will follow at St. Stephen's Cemetery in Delmar.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in her memory to Forest Grove-Salisbury Old School Baptist Church, c/o Marietta Robbins, P.O. Box 4092, Salisbury, MD 21803-4092, or to the Activity Department, Wicomico Nursing Home, P.O. Box 2378, Salisbury, MD 21802-2378.

“ Jean, Bill & family...our hearts are heavy with the sadness that is felt when a loved one leaves this world. But our hearts are filled with joy in knowing that their journey has just begun when they step into eternity and in the arms of a loving God. One of our fondest memories of Aunt Ida was when Martin & myself took Aunt Ida & Nana (Julia Ada) to Ocean City just before Memorial Day it was a bit nippy out, but they were both troopers they sat in the car looking out of the window eating their caramel popcorn (I believe) giggling like school girls. Whenever the two of them got together you could almost imagine how mischievous they could've been in their younger days. "Lord renew our minds!" Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is – his good, pleasing and perfect will. Romans 12:2 God bless you & we will keep you in our hearts & our prayers...Judith & Martin Light###imported-begin##Judith & Martin Light###imported-end##

“ Miss Ida, was such a blessing to me while I worked at WNH. She was so loved by all who lived and worked at WNH. She always had the most positive attitude about life and things. She was a friend to all. She so loved her daughter as she would talk about her quite often. She really enjoyed taking part in the activities at WNH. I thank God for the time I shared with her & am sad to hear of the loss of her. I believe she's happy in heaven now. I pray God will fill the hearts of her daughter & family members with His peace, strength and comfort. Kathy###imported-begin###Kathy Murphy###imported-end##
