

James K. "Kinsey" Budd

July 25, 1926 - December 18, 2007

James K. "Kinsey" Budd, 81, of Hebron, and formerly of Delmar, died Tuesday, Dec. 18, 2007, at Peninsula Regional Medical Center in Salisbury.

He was born July 25, 1926 in Hebron, a son of the late Andrew Kenwood and Effie Ruth Budd.

Kinsey, as he was known by his family and friends, served his country in the US Navy from 1944 to 1946. After his service with the Navy, he began working in 1948 as a Telephone Technician for C&P Telephone, and later Bell Atlantic, until retirement in 1983. As an active member of his community, his memberships included the Hebron American Legion, Communication Workers of America and the Telephone Pioneers Association. He was also on the Board of Directors of the Johnny O 12 Step Center, Past President of Delmar Railroaders Baseball Team, Past Governor of Moose Lodge 654 of Delmar, and past manager and coach in the Delmar Little League. He loved watching his sons and grandchildren play baseball.

He is survived by two sons, Gary W. Budd and his wife, Terry and J. Gregory Budd and his wife, Linda; four grandchildren, Mickey, Erin, Carlee and Robbie Budd, all of Delmar.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a son, Barry Budd, who passed in 1994. A graveside service will be held on Friday at 11 a.m. at Springhill Memory Gardens in Hebron. The Reverend Paul Sherwood will officiate.

Memorial contributions may be made in his memory to: the American Heart Association, Memorial Processing Center, P.O. Box 5216, Glen Allen, VA 23058.
