“ My deepest sympathy is felt for the passing of my dear neighbor, Mr. Jimmy.

Mr. Jimmy, as I grew up to know him, will always be remembered by me as the kind, devoted gentleman who loved and cared for his wife, Ms. Margaret, deeply. He always took time to wave a friendly hello from across the road and always asking how the family and kids were doing. Missed are the days of his daily feedings to his beloved animals.

During the last few years, I know it was a comfort to him to live with John and Sandy who loved and cared for him during his declining years. He was surrounded by love to the end which is comforting.

Your family is in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Sue Yeadt Gaidurgis##imported-end##
