“ Dear Tony, Ben & Becky....

My earliest memory of Jane was seeing her descend the grand staircase at Belmont House, a regal vision with her long dark hair - she did it with style!! She would watch over me when we visited Caerleon, and make sure her troublesome little cousin wouldn't get into too much trouble...

Her wedding also left a vivid impression on me as a mid-teen ... the service was lovely, the church so memorable, but it was the reception on the grounds of Belmont House which I still recall to this day - between Jane, Tony and their friends from culinary school, they laid out a spread the likes of which I had never seen before. Jane was in her element.

Her life in California and then Maryland seemed to suit her well, the freedom of the farm, her hobbies, her family - it was always good to hear from her around Christmas time and catch up with her news. I know she was proud of what Tony has accomplished, and she was especially proud of Ben and Becky...

It is very sad that she is gone so soon, and she will be missed, but she has left her family and those who knew her well with indelible memories for life.

Rest well, cousin - we will catch up on news later on.

“ Dear Breeze Family,

I am so sorry that Jane has left us, but she lives on in all of you. She created a lovely home and took solace in it. How beautiful that Beccy will soon be having a baby and that a new life will come into the family. I wish I could be with you to celebrate Jane, Tony and Ben, and know that no matter the weather, it will be a lovely day. I will be toasting Jane with a cuppa tea, and sending much love to you all during this difficult time.
