

Jason Scott Larson

December 12, 2002 - July 17, 2018

LAUREL- Jason Scott Larson entered the Lord's embrace on July 17, 2018. He was born on December 12, 2002 in Salisbury, a son of Douglas and Hope (Messick) Larson.

Jason attended Laurel High School and would have been entering his sophomore year this fall. He was an active covenant member of Laurel Wesleyan Church. Jason had a sweet soul and loved the Lord with all of his heart. He was a compassionate and sensitive young man and a wonderful friend to all. He loved to go for bike rides and just hanging out with his friends. He was becoming a talented artist, with aspirations of one day designing and/or working on cars. He will always be remembered for his infectious smile and sense of humor.

He held a special place in his heart for his family and friends, especially his older brother Jacob and younger sister Holly. He is also survived by his Uncle Joe Messick (Angel); Aunt Denise Haglund (John); his grandparents, Joe and Phyllis Messick; and cousins, Brianna, Trey, Alyssa, Erika and Tory.

He was preceded in death by grandparents, Leone and Dennis Larson.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, July 28, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. at Laurel Wesleyan Church, 30186 Seaford Rd, in Laurel, where a visitation for family and friends will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. Pastor Scott Conn will officiate. Interment will be private.

In honor of Jason's memory, memorial contributions may be made in his memory to Nemours A.I. DuPont Children's Hospital by visiting <https://www.ne> mours.org or to the Children's National Medical Center by visiting <https://giving.childrensnational.org> .

Arrangements are in the care of Short Funeral Home in Delmar. Online condolences may be sent to the family by visiting www.shortfh.com.

“ I remember Jason as a very bubbly and joyful young man. Most of the time when he saw you, he would hug you. I never heard him say a cross word about anyone. He really liked to worship the Lord with both of his hands raised.

“ During a high school football game he came up and was talking to my husband & I. My husband is in a wheelchair. Jason was standing in front of him and he couldn't see. We asked him if he could and with a smile he said "yes". He made sure no one else stood in his way for the rest of the game. He came over and said hi and many other games and made sure we had a clear view! RIP: Jason!

“ Hope I know this is the hardest thing you will ever deal with and my heart breaks for you and your husband, I know because of the way you raised your kids in a God fearing home that your son is in the presence of Jesus Christ our savior. When God calls someone home when they are young best believe he only takes the good ones early, One thing for sure is you will see him again but until then your heart may break but with God in your life he will see you through. God bless u Hope....your sister in Christ....Stephanie Booth Edwards

“ I can remember the first time we meet Jason my family and I just moved across the street from the Larson family, my son got to best friends with his big brother Jacob. I could tell that Jason was a great kid I think he was about 8 or 9 yrs old. I remember Jason would come over to the house to see if my son wanted to come out and play and of course he did. Jason will be missed by many. Jason maybe gone but never forgotten, fly high and watch over your family, keep them safe let them know that you are still with them. Thank you Jason for being apart of my family.

“ Being around your family is always such an inspiration. You guys are all so tight and your love and camaraderie are infectious. Your smiles all brighten the days of so many others. Hope & Doug are always smiling ear to ear when they speak of their children. Jason was such a sweetheart. We are so heavy-hearted knowing how difficult this has been and will be for you and your friends and family. We pray that you will somehow find comfort and keep letting those who love you surround you with love, hugs, prayers, and kindness. At this time, let others lift you up-as you have lifted so many others. Love you guys. The Grotons (Lonny, Billy, Jessa, Gadee, & Justin)
