“ So sorry to see Jean has passed. We were Tupperware buddies back in the 80's, we enjoyed each other's company a lot. In the last few years we reconnected when she and Ernie became customers where I work. I'm shocked by her passing. She'll be missed.

“ So sad about Aunt Jean. So happy to see the great pics of her. She was very special to me especially as a young girl. At 16 I “ran away” from home to her house in Spartanburg. She welcomed me with open arms & helped a mixed up teenager by just accepting & loving me. She also pierced my ears with ice cube & a needle! She let me decide that I needed to return home & finish school. Wow what memories for the 68 year old grandmother that I am now. Rest in peace Aunt Jean. I love you. Ann
