“ *To the family,
Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your loved one, Joni. I did not know her personally; however, i came across her obituary in the newspaper. She would be definitely missed. In times like this, the bible is a sure source of comfort to mourning ones. John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:4 are examples of scriptures that comfort mourning ones. They speak of a time when loved ones such as Joni would be raised up back to life in conditions free from mourning, outcry, pain, tears, sorrow, and death. Yes, the Almighty God will soon bring about perfect paradise conditions. I know that i cannot quench your pain and sorrow, but i do hope you find comfort to soothe your pain and help you cope with your loss.*

“ The passing of Joni has really touched everyone She knew, She was such a bright light for everyone, never complained and was always concerned for everyone's happiness, She would post the most amazing photos of butterflies and nature, you would never know how bad She was feeling, I wish I had more time, we were planning a visit over the holidays since we found each other on FB, Joni You left us way to soon but I know You are watching over us all, and every time I see a Butterfly I will be reminded of You and the beauty you left on this earth! RIP my friend, You will be missed.

“ I went to school with Joni and we reconnected a few years ago through Facebook. She would post cat pictures for me and they always brightened my day, I miss that immensely. Joni's smile could brighten anyone's day and her love for her family shined through her. The angels have carried her gently home and I hope that your happy memories will help you through this difficult time. She is a beautiful soul and heaven now has a bright and beautiful butterfly to grace with her presence.
