“ I moved to Colonial Mills in January of 1990 when Josh was a shy little boy riding with his grandma in a red little pick up truck . He quickly grew up to a courteous young man who would help anybody that needed assistance in any way that was possible for him, including my sisters on many occasions. We will certainly missed Josh smiling face. Our most sincere condolences to to his entire Family specially his Mom Debbie and maternal Grandmother Gladys. From: Richard A. Mendoza & Family
