“ Hey Sis,

Did you see how many people came to see you off? You touched so many people with your smile. I am so proud of you and I know Mom and Dad are too. What is it like to hear ten thousand angels sing “The B-I-B-L-E”? I bet it is amazing. How is MomMom Owens doing? I'm sure she was glad to see you. Do you remember that song Dad wrote for you? “Theres a little girl named Laura Lynn with a head full of curls and a great big grin, she loves her Mom she loves her Dad she loves her brother even when he's bad.” I always used to change the last word to “sad” and you would just laugh and laugh. Well I'm real sad now, but like the song says I know you still love me. I love you too, Laura. I miss you – we all do, but you know what, we'll see you one day soon. It will seem like a lifetime for us but just a split second for you. Until then, we'll never forget you. Happy Birthday. Love, your big brother, Wesley##imported-begin##Wes Owens##imported-end##

“ I wanted to send my condolences to all of Lauras family. I was so sad to hear of Laura's passing, but know that she is in a much better place now. How comforting to know that she's in heaven with the Lord! I remember Laura from when she was born, I was a little girl myself, attending Faith Baptist church and school for many, many years. I remember her smile! How pretty it was! I will remember you all in my prayers, believing that God will give each of you the strength you need. I love and miss each of you! “ We can't believe that Laura is gone. She was a very special part of our class for 5 years. We have reminised about the great times we had with her. She always made us smile with her "Rala, stand up" ;"The whole world" and the way she let us know how she felt, even without words(especially when she laughed and shook her head in her "covergirl" way). She was an incredibly strong willed young lady. I can't even say how much we love her and the impression she has made on our lives. Our hearts go out to Mrs. Bruce and her family.##imported-begin##Maria and Robin##imported-end##

“ My thoughts of Laura are that she knew joy and expressed it better than we, who are so busy with life, can express it. It brought a smile to my face when she came to church and would spontaneously shout out "BIB" meaning she wanted to hear us sing "The BIBLE." I pray that through her life and death that we would remember the joy she brought to life and the joy we can each have through Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Heidi Gore##imported-end##
