“ I knew Aunt Lida from the family gatherings we would have ; and she would always have a big smile and a big hug for me; and that's when we would catch up on family stuff? God truly has a good hearted woman with him now! she is going to be missed by everyone who knew and loved her.

“ I am Barbara Massey's sister. I am sorry to hear of Lida's journey these past months. She is a wonderful memory for a kid from upstate Delaware, who learned many life skills during the summers we spent at the Kinnikins. I love the picture of her-it is the best memory-of her smile.
