“ My dear sweet sister Linda - how I will miss our 2-3 hour phone conversations about the TV programs we watched the night before or our weekly Friday dinners at one of our usual restaurants or lunches at Taco Bell. I enjoyed sending you a photo of my latest jackpot at the casino. I'll miss your Saturday night pizza which you made almost every week since you married Tom. Max misses his Auntie and going to your house so you can watch him. Rosie misses you too and I will take very good care of her. Max and Rosie already play and sleep together. I miss you so much and can't wait to see you again in Heaven. Love and Miss you Sister - my heart is breaking right now - Rest in Peace. Jill.,Max, and Rosie.
