Lois graduated from Wicomico Sr. High School. She was well known for her chocolate chip cookies. Lois was a wonderful friend to many. Her family was her world and she loved supporting her grandchildren and great grandchildren at their many little league games, school functions and other activities. She was a proud and loving Grammy to Kayla, Kelcey, Kendall, Timothy, Harper, and Landry, and a Great-Grammy to Jaelyn, Olivia, Kashton, Keghan, Kendrick, Kellam, Josiah, Elijah, Gracelyn and Jonah. She also leaves behind a daughter, Shannon Wootten (Brian Cooper) and a son, James Isham; sisters, Carolyn Causey and Judy Plummer (John); and many nieces and nephews who loved their "Aunt Lou Lou."

A celebration of her life will be held at a later date.

In memory of Lois, the family kindly asks for donations to be made to the East Wicomico Little League, P.O. Box 3701, Salisbury, MD 21802.

“ I am saddened at her passing. I have been her endocrinologist for many, many years. I have seen her in the office and the hospital, in good times and bad times. She had always worked so hard on her medical conditions and kept such a good and positive attitude throughout. she was so caring about others. I always looked forward to her visits. The visits with her were like seeing family. She was such a nice and caring person. She always talked about her family. The family was what kept her going and kept her recovering from the occasional medical setbacks in the past. I, and my staff, will miss and remember her.
