“ Trimming under the mail boxes or the posts along the lane...she saw it all. Not unlike my Mom, sometimes I think she had eyes in the back of her head. She appreciated anything we did for her - such little things. Her constant companion,her little dog, must be so sad.

I am sorry that she had to suffer before her passing, But she wanted to be home and to go on her own terms. God speed, Miss Madge.

“ In loving memory of Aunt Madge...you were there for us as we grew up and left me with many happy memories. You and Uncle Bob used to take us swimming and I can recall the happy laughs you and Uncle Bob had. Love you and will always remember you. Tell all the "family" hi and let Daddy (Frank Sr.) know I love him and miss him too. Take care and see you again.

*Karen and Tina I am so sorry for your loss....
