“ So sorry to hear of Mrs. June’s passing. My deepest condolences and prayers go out to Robin, Bobby, and the rest of the family in this time of grief.

Growing up in Delmar, I fondly recall my many visits to Bryan & Brittingham’s with my father. Most visits entailed that I poke my head around the open door of her office and say, “Hello Mrs. June” before I left the store. There would also be those rare occasions when she would call me in for a brief, but detailed, question & answer session about anything, everything, and nothing, all at the same time!

The world could certainly use a lot more Mrs. Junes!

“ Robyn and Bobby, I am so sorry to hear about June's death last Friday. I guess we should say her graduation into the presence of her Lord and Saviour. I have fond memories of youth group with your parents at Calvary Baptist Tabernacle and bike rides to your house from ours. For me that was a great adventure. Thankful for your mother's faithful testimony for the Lord all these years. I know you will miss her greatly. I trust your days will be filled with many memories and the calm assurance of eternal life for those who have trusted Jesus. With my sincere sympathy, Elizabeth Booda Hartzler
