“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your loved one, Marian. She will be missed. Your family has lost someone very near and dear to their hearts. Please strive to take one day at a time, for you may not know what benefit or encouragement a new day will bring. Please know too, in addition to the love of family and friends, Our Heavenly Father is here for you as well. He is so because he truly "cares for you." (1Peter 5:7) May each passing day get a little easier as life returns to normal.

“ John,
So sorry for the loss of your sweet Betty. She knew you loved her. Be gentle with yourself through this painful time. When, at unguarded moments, grief sneaks up on you step aside & let it out. When you're hurting think of the good memories and be glad knowing that something beautiful remains in your heart, Thinking of you at this time.
Sincerely, Bob Waltersdorff

“ John, I am so sorry to hear that Betty has passed but I think that accepting that this is God's will may help in your pain though it won't take all of the pain away only lessen it.

“ I talked with Marian for many years when I worked for Perdue in North Carolina. I finally met her (and John) when Perdue transferred me to the Salisbury Corporate office. She was the one the sweetest people I ever knew. My heart hurts for John. When you saw one, you saw the other.

My prayers are with the family.
