“ I also worked alongside Mark with Wayne at the Naval Security Station from 1985 until I left in '89. We were a pretty closeknit bunch and many of us have maintained contact over the years. Like Wayne, I also tried to find Mark since I last spoke with him in 1995 but could never locate him. How sad that we finally found him by finding out that we've really lost him.##imported-begin##David Bagley##imported-end##

“ We live in Northern Virginia but received a message today (7/29/07) from South Carolina that Mark passed away. We are truly saddened by this. I (Wayne) worked with Mark for many years before the Security Station in D.C. was dismantled and relocated. We had some incredibly good times taking long bike rides in Virginia and fishing together in South Carolina. Ann and I have a great deal of affection for him. As diligently as we tried finding him, not many knew where his travels took him. We extend our most profound and deepest sympathy to the family. "Mark, rest in perfect peace dear friend."
