“ What a delightful lady. Always a smile to greet customers at Rite-Aid and her "Hello Darlin" always cheered me. She will be missed by many others like me - just happy customers who never knew her beyond the store.

“ Jeanne loved everyone that worked for her at Banks Market on Priscilla St. She especially liked it when I closed up one night and put sign on the door that said "This Store Is Closed Due To a Lack of interest. After she got over being Mad. She laughed and said she didn't think I would do it. She was always a good sport. She will be missed. Linda, and Sheila, sorry for you loss.
