“ Norma and my mom were "special" friends, as they used to joke. They enjoyed going to the casinos in PA. She was the first person that she met when they moved to Chadds Ford. They both had huskies! She will be sorely missed. A wonderful friend to my mother, Eleanor.

“ Norma was truly a “second Mom” to me. Our countless conversations during many evenings, which of course had to be completed before her favorite game shows started on TV, will last in my memories forever. The precious quilts and other unique crafts so kindly shared will also be everlasting treasures for our family. As Always, sending hugs and kisses to you....
