“ Raymond and I grew up together in Riverton, Md. most of our childhood. I remember playing stick ball in the road and part of yard. Going to the river and fishing, crabbing and playing. Most fin were the times cutting firewood with his Dad and Tommy. And who couldnt forget the Hog killings. And the favorite sow Sookie. What about the great times at the Sharptown Carnival. Going to miss you , rest in peace Raymond. Till we meet again.
