“ Back in the '70's and later, Brent was a dear friend through fund-raising with his band, hours of quiet support throuh his chemo as a young man. I have two of his treasures that I have kept for many years; his baby curls and a quilt his grandmother made when she was almost blind. When you want, call me. 410-742-6719. I celebrate his life, his struggles, and now his lasting peace. God has him in his hands now###imported-begin##joan schoepf###imported-end##

“ just want to send my deepest love and sympathy to Bruce and Billy , and the rest of the family in the loss of dear Brent. He was not only my neighbor, but one of my dearest friends. When I had no one to teach me how to throw a baseball, or make a basket, or any other sport, Brent was always there. I graduated with Brent in 1965, and counted it a honor to have had him as my neighbor for all my childhood. I look forward to seeing you again old friend.##imported-begin##jeanette benton stine##imported-end##
