“ I will miss dearly my little brother. I have been looking at our old pictures this last week and remembering our good times. Robert will live in our memories forever. Marian, my wife suggested this quote for Robert. It is from Kahlil Gibran who wrote the book The Prophet: "For what it is to die but to stand in the sun and melt into the wind, and when the Earth has claimed our limbs then we shall truly dance."###imported-begin##Dave and Marian Clark###imported-end##

“ Through the years of having Robert as a Brother in Law and friend I always found him to be so at peace, quick witted, and soothing to those around him. Hard working and quick to fill a spot when they needed someone, Robert exemplified what a team player was.

Many a day, Robert sat, with that pursed lip, the nod of his head, as he intently listened to the issues of the patrons who found his heart open to the words of distress, the jokes of the day, and the plans of tomorrow. He would always leave them with the words of encouragement that helped them walk away with a sense of hope.

I enjoyed knowing Robert, talking with him, I know he will fit right in where he is, no matter how good things are, there will be a lost soul Robert can steer in the right direction, a lonely voice Robert will hear and console, I await the day when Robert stands opposite me, asks how I have been and what can he get me. I'll tell him the usual, and along with all those he touched and served here on the shore, he will remember exactly what I ordered and serve it with a smile##imported-begin##Mark Shores##imported-end##

“ I worked as Roberts Bar back, and Service Bartender for several years. His customers followed him to whatever restaurant he was at, coming there for him more than anything. A true professional and a gentleman, anyone that knew him was better for it. I miss the laughs we had, and express my deepest condolences to his family.##imported-begin##"Flagg"##imported-end##

“ I was saddened by the passing of an icon of the local restuarant industry. Robert served me many a coke at the Royal Exchange Pub and later at the Firehouse and Waterman's when I was back at home on vacation. And the one thing I'll always remember about him was the constant smile on his face. He loved people and loved his work. Although we've lost a friend you can bet that Robert is smiling down on us today! My sincere condolences to the family.....Mike Seidel##imported-begin##Mike Seidel##imported-end##
