“ I was born and raised on Little Mill Road, Stockton, Maryland, next to the Outten farm. I remember Sandy and Pat and saw them frequently when they visited their grandparents. My sister, Edna Holland Walls, sent me the obituary clipping from the newspaper regarding Sandy's death. When I saw Sandy's photograph, it brought back so many memories of her and Pat, her sister. And, of course, the horse named in their honor, Sandy Pat. My sister Edna spent much time at the Outten farm, riding the horses. I would tag along, but rarely rode since I was allergic to the horses and all farm animals. (Still am). Sandy was always so sweet and kind to me; always with a quick smile, friendly greeting, and always with the same sweet composure. I wish to extend my condolences to her sister, Pat, and Sandy's family. Even though I lost touch, after moving from Little Mill Road, and traveling the world, finally landing near Washington, D.C., I have thought often of my childhood and the people who were so important in my life.

Sincerely,

I am so sorry to read about your loss. I knew Sandy through my sister Sandra Brumbley who worked with her for many years at Wards. They were good friends. Please accept my sympathy and prayers.

“ Was so shocked to read of Sandy's passing. For years we lived next door to her mom and last year Sandy came to spend a few hours with us. Said she just felt like she wanted to talk about old times. She brought with her a picture album and we had a wonderful visit. Know she loved her children as her conversation was of Bobbi and Jeff. I'm glad for that afternoon we spent together. God bless and comfort you all in your loss. Pat, God has a special blessing awaiting you.##imported-begin##Bonnie Adkins & Madelyn Miles##imported-end##
