“ Dear Sara

We BOTH had 'Excellent' taste....I knew that 'first hand' when I came to my Dearest Friend's Wedding (your daughter Judy) at your house years ago !

I walked in and we "BOTH" had on the SAME Dress :)

I was ready to go home and change, and being the 'Gracious Lady' that you were, said to me, "Pat, are you kidding, we have Great Taste".

I always admired you...And I thought you were SO Beautiful, and you were.

I will Always remember your 'smile' and your 'Fantastic' personality. Judy was Blessed to have you as her 'Mom', but You were Blessed too, to have a Daughter that cared for you SO "Lovingly" to the VERY end.

May You Rest in Peace Sara.

I know you and Jim are in each other's arms

That gives me Comfort in your passing.

God Bless You Both

With Heartfelt Sympathy

“ What I remember the most about Mom was her love of cooking and cook books. She must have had over 200 cook books! She was known for having strawberry shortcake in the spring and summer and Sweet Potato Pie in the fall along with Oyster Fritters. She would stay in the kitchen all day long preparing dinner with at least 2 meats and 14 different vegetables. She dearly loved all her grandchildren and great-grandchildren and kept their photos near her always. She donated money to the poor and sick even when she didn't have enough for herself. When she became ill and went into the nursing home, I would go get her and take her out to lunch and then for a long ride. She loved her long rides. We had great times together and shared special moments as the years passed by. I am proud to say she was my mother and honored to say she was also my best friend. I love you Mom and already miss you terribly.

I love you Mom Mom. I will never forget the afternoon we made blankets for all of my model horses. And long walks- through the cemetery and along the beach. We didn't have to say anything; being together was enough.

I met Sara when Mary Lou, Judy, and I were teenagers attending Peninsula Catholic High School... We gave her a few headaches with our practical jokes--like ink in the Holy Water--but she always understood us. I have the best memories of her laughter, especially when we were at Nags Head, NC on the beach. She fed us well and made us spend one afternoon shelling a bushel of peas.....we played cards and enjoyed being together...

Always the Hostess, she had my wedding in 1972 down to a science....and not one problem I knew about.

Her love for Jim, her girls, and family knew no bounds.

I feel honored to have known and cared for such a giving person.

May you find comfort knowing she is with Jim and both are proudly looking down at all of us lucky enough to have shared their lives.
