

The Rev. Dr. John T. Randolph

December 30, 1937 - October 21, 2020

The Reverend Dr. John T. Randolph, 82, of Lewes, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, October 21, 2020 at his home in Lewes surrounded by his loving family.

He was born on December 30, 1937 in Elkton, Maryland, a son of the late Elsie Lloyd Randolph and David James Randolph, Sr.

Dr. Randolph was a graduate of Drew University and Wesley Theological Seminary; he held the Master of Sacred Theology degree from Boston University School of Theology and the Doctor of Sacred Theology degree, in preaching, from Emory University in Atlanta. His education included a strong concentration in preaching and pastoral counseling. He was also an author of five books focusing on sermons and prayer. He served pastorates in Massachusetts, Delaware, and Maryland and was an instructor in Eastern Religions at Wesley College in Dover. He retired in 2003 from St. Stephen's United Methodist Church in Delmar.

His greatest accomplishments include earning a doctorate in preaching and his wonderful family.

He is survived by his wife, Maubra Jane Randolph; a son, John Thomas Randolph, II (Joseph) of New Jersey; a granddaughter, Julia Skye Randolph; a brother, The Reverend Dr. David James Randolph, Jr. of California; and nieces and nephews, David, Tracey, Mark (Becky), and Laurie.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a sister, Joy Mae Randolph; and a brother, Reverend Harry Evans Randolph.

A graveside service will be held on Thursday, October 29, 2020 at 2:00 p.m. at Gracelawn Memorial Park, 2220 N. Dupont Hwy, New Castle, Delaware. Arrangements are in the care of Short Funeral Home in Delmar.
