“ *Although I did not know you well
I am sure you left many memories to tell and for those who love you and now have you in their heart
The memories of you will never part.*

May you dance with the angels and be with Uncle Roger once again

“ Aunt Thelma always spoke her mind and could make us laugh with her wit and straightforwardness. Working at Sams Club kept her young even in her seventies. She would tell us that "I'm a tough old bird." and she was. Since she accepted Jesus as her Saviour, we know that she would want her family to do the same (if they haven't) and meet her in Heaven one day. We love you, Aunt Thelma. Faith, Steve & Family
