“ I'm am very sad to here this and am speechless. Ive known this man for atleast 25 years and has always had each others back. I don't know what happened but its a sad day for a lot of people. we used to play as kids and stand strong with each other as adults. I miss you ol friend. I ask God why but there is no right to reason when something like this happens. I'm a man of few words and never cry but Troy once again brought out something in me that I thought wasn't there. I look forward to my time to be with you and the rest of our fallen friends and family. To his family, my heart is with you, even though its broken right now. I love and miss you already. Anything my family can do, please just ask and it will be done. My mother pays her respects also, she still remembers him as a little kid coming over to our house on Truitt St. Soon we will all be together and Ill see there Troy. I will never forget.
